Why Buy From Us?:

Experience Auto Group is one of only a handful of factory authorized Ferrari and Maserati dealerships in the country. As such, we place a high premium on the quality of vehicles that we offer for sale. We purchase from many different outlets, but the majority of our inventory is obtained from trade-ins and local purchases. This is done so that we can thoroughly research the pedigree and history of every car we offer for sale. It is only those that meet or exceed or uniquely high standards of excellence that are offered for sale. Additionally, we spend over six figures annually investing in the ongoing education of our Certified Technicians, and we rely on them to thoroughly inspect and correct the mechanical components of each car. Our team of top-tier technicians share a combined 200 years of experience and have worked on every major brand in this country.

Our Philosophy: Real Time Market Pricing

There is little debate that the internet has changed the way cars are bought and sold. Transparency in the marketplace has become the norm. And while many Ultra-Highline dealers have stuck with their old ways of marketing, here at Experience Auto Group we have embraced the change that surrounds us all. That is why we utilize state-of-the-art technology to constantly monitor pricing trends in the fast moving marketplace, and position our prices to be fair and competitive.
